Dear Joshua:

Many thanks for your note, and for the suggestions concerning the mutation experiment. Do not hesitate to have one of your people work on this. It should be done, but I am pretty much involved in other things at the moment.

Klaus Rothfels is now back at the Department of Botany, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ont. He told me that his discussion for the C.S.H. volume had been sent in, but it would not hurt to contact him directly. His manuscript, incidentally, has gone to "Genetics".

Sincerely,

HBN/lr
